5. Records we hold to comply with the law

5.1. We hold the following subjects and categories of records:

- Company records;
- Business records;
- Financial records;
- Insurance records;
- Personnel records;
- Policies and directives;
- Agreements or contracts;
- Regulatory documents;
- Published information;
- Customer information; and
- Reference materials.

5.2. For purposes of PAIA, the Company holds records across various subjects and categories in electronic and/or physical form, which are created and retained in compliance with applicable South African legislation, some of which are automatically available and others accessible only upon request in accordance with this Manual.

5.3. Please note that records that are 'not automatically available,' must be requested using the process outlined in the 'How to request access' section of this manual. We have not published any notices under Section 52 of PAIA. This means that, aside from records automatically available through legislation or voluntarily disclosed in this manual, access to our records will only be granted in accordance with the procedures outlined in this manual.

We hold various subjects and categories of records in electronic or physical form that are available automatically or in other ways.

5.4. The following legislation applies across multiple categories of records, depending on the nature, purpose and content of the record:

- Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000
- Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013
- Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998
- Prevention of Constitutional Democracy Against Terrorist and Related Activities Act 33 of 2004

6. How to request access

6.1. We have authorised and designated our information officer to deal with all matters relating to PAIA in order to comply with our obligations in terms of PAIA. To request access to a record for BetterSure Holdings (Pty) Limited, or any of the BetterSure Holdings group of companies as listed above please complete Form 2 for the particular entity that holds such information. Form 02 - is available from

- The Information Regulator website at <https://inforegulator.org.za/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/InfoRegSA-PAIA-Form02-Reg7.pdf>

6.2. Please submit the completed form to our information officer together with the relevant request fee (details here: how-much-it-will-cost-you) at our information officer's email address, or our physical address, in terms of our details provided above. Please ensure that the completed form:

- has enough information for the information officer to identify you, the requested records, and which form of access you require;
- specifies your email address, or postal address;
- describes the right that you seek to exercise or protect;
- explains why you need the requested record to exercise or protect that right;
- provides any other way you would like to be informed of our decision other than in writing; and
- provides proof of the capacity in which you are making the request if you are making it on behalf of someone else (we will decide whether this proof is satisfactory).

6.3. If you do not use the standard form we may:

- reject the request due to lack of procedural compliance;

- refuse it if you do not provide sufficient information; or
- delay it.

You may request information by completing a request for access form and submitting it to our information officer together with a request fee.

7. Grounds for refusal

7.1. We may have to refuse you access to certain records in terms of PAIA to protect:

- someone else's privacy;
- another company's commercial information;
- someone else's confidential information;
- the safety of individuals and property;
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings; or
- research information.

7.2. We will notify you in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after we have received a completed request for access form. If we cannot find any requested record or it does not exist, then we will notify you by way of affidavit that it is not possible to give access to that particular record.

We may have to refuse you access to a record to protect others.

8. How we will give you access

We will evaluate and consider all requests to us in terms of PAIA. If we approve your request for access to our records, then we will decide how to provide access to you – unless you have asked for access in a specific form. Publication of this manual does not give rise to any rights to access information records, except in terms of PAIA.

9. How much it will cost you

9.1. You must pay us a request fee as required by law when submitting a request for access to information. Please refer to 'Form 03: Outcome of request and of fees payable [Regulation 8]' which is available on the website of the Information Regulator at www.inforegulator.org.za under the section 'PAIA /Forms'.

9.2. You must pay us the fees before we will hand over any information. You may have to pay a further access fee if we grant the request for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

10. How we process and protect personal information

We process the personal information of various categories of people for various purposes as set out in this clause.

10.1. Categories of people

We process the personal information of the following categories of people:

- customers or clients;
- prospects or leads;
- employees;
- recruiters and medical practitioners providing services related to employees;
- contractors, vendors, or suppliers;
- children and their guardians;

- debtors and creditors;
- dealers; and
- directors and shareholders.

10.2. Purposes

We process the personal information to:

- provide our goods or supply our services;
- better understand our data subjects' needs when doing so;
- keep our data subject records up-to-date;
- manage employees in general;
- manage supplier contracts in general;
- manage dealer relationships in general;
- manage customers in general;
- manage customer credit in general;
- market to customers in various countries;
- educate children in general;
- enforce debts;
- market goods and services to prospects;
- run promotional competitions for businesses;
- process customer requests or complaints; and
- process personal information of employees for forensic purposes.

10.3. Categories of personal information

We process many different categories of personal information, including:

- contact details, such as phone numbers, physical and postal addresses, and email addresses;
- personal details, such as names and ages;
- demographic details, such as races and age groups;
- health information;
- biometric information;
- account numbers;
- background information;
- contract information;
- credit information;
- market intelligence information;
- learner information; and
- debt and debtor information.

10.4. Third-party disclosures

We give the following people personal information that we process in the ordinary course of business to fulfil our obligations to our customers or clients:

- law enforcement or regulatory bodies, originators, attorneys, contractors, vendors, or suppliers;
- agents, distributors, or other resellers;
- operators, other responsible parties, or co-responsible parties; and
- third party vendors (such as software developers) to help us maintain our services.

10.5. Cross-border transfers

We send personal information outside of South Africa to various countries. We will also transfer data to other countries who have similar privacy laws to South Africa's, or recipients who can guarantee the protection of personal information to the same standard we must protect it.

10.6. Security

We implement reasonable technical and organisational measures to safeguard the security, confidentiality, integrity and availability of personal information, including secure system hosting, access controls, restricted employee access, data retention controls, and procedures to support business continuity and respond to security incidents. These measures are applied in accordance with applicable data protection laws, and further detail regarding such security safeguards is set out in our Privacy Policy, which is available on the Company's website or upon request.

We do our best to keep all data in our possession secure and up-to-date.

10.7. Data subject requests

In terms of Section 23 of POPIA, a data subject has the right to:

- Request what personal information the company holds about them and the purpose for which it is being processed.
- Be informed of how their personal information is being processed, kept and how to keep it up to date

We give effect to data subjects rights. Send the completed Section 23 form to the designated Information Officer, along with the applicable request fee, as outlined in the manual.

11. Remedies

If your request for access is denied, you may:

- In terms of section 56(3)(c) and 78(3)(c) of PAIA apply to a court with appropriate jurisdiction within 30 days of notification of the decision for appropriate relief, or
- lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator, for the necessary relief.

12. Availability of this Manual

This manual is available in English and will be available on our website, and at our company offices. The manual is also electronically available on our website at: www.BetterSure.co.za

13. Updates to this Manual

This manual will be updated whenever we make material changes to the current information.
